DL Capital has not sought to independently verify information obtained from public and third party sources and makes no representations or warranties as to accuracy, completeness or reliability of such information. All opinions and views constitute judgments as of the date of writing without regard to the date on which the reader may receive or access the information, and are subject to change at any time without notice and with no obligation to update. The material contained in this website is for informational and illustrative purposes only and is intended solely for the information of accredited investors visiting this website. DL Capital does not represent, warrant or guarantee that this information is suitable for any investment purpose and it should not be used as a basis for investment decisions. This website does not purport to contain all of the information that a prospective investor may wish to consider. The material contained in this website is not to be relied upon as such or used in substitution for the exercise of independent judgment. Past performance does not guarantee or indicate future results.

This website and its contents do not constitute an offering of any security, product, service or fund. This website and its contents are provided for information purposes only, are not an offer to buy or sell or solicitation of an offer to buy or sell any security or instrument or to participate in any trading strategy, and may not be reproduced or distributed without the express written consent of DL Capital. If any offer of securities is made, it shall be pursuant to the applicable private placement memorandum prepared by or on behalf of the issuer of the securities which would contain material information not contained herein and which would supersede, amend and supplement this information in its entirety. Any decision to invest in the securities described herein should be made only after reviewing the definitive private placement memorandum relating to the securities, including the discussion of risk factors and conflicts of interest therein. The purchase of interests in the DL Partners, LP (the "Fund") is suitable only for eligible investors for whom an investment in such Fund does not constitute a complete investment program and who fully understand and are willing to assume the risks involved in such Fund's investment program. There is no intention to offer products and services in countries or jurisdictions where such an offer would be unlawful under the relevant domestic law. Before deciding to invest in the Fund, prospective investors must carefully read the relevant private placement memorandum and should independently assess (with the investor's tax, legal and financial advisors) the risk characteristics of the Fund. An investment in the Fund is intended only for investors who understand and are capable of assuming all risks involved. DL Capital makes no representation as to the suitability of the Fund for any particular investor or as to the future performance of the Fund. An investment in the Fund may not be made for at least thirty (30) days after the approval of a prospective investor's application and confirmation of the prospective investor's status as an accredited investor.

The information contained in this website does not take into account the particular investment objectives or financial circumstances of any specific person who may receive it and is qualified in its entirety by the applicable private placement memorandum. In the event of any discrepancies between the information contained herein and the private placement memorandum, the private placement memorandum will control. The information herein is not intended to provide, and should not be relied upon for, accounting, legal or tax advice or investment recommendations.

This website and its contents are not intended for persons who, due to their nationality or place of residence, are not permitted access to such information under local law.

DL Capital does not provide legal or tax advice. Prior to investing in the Fund, you should consult your accounting, tax, and legal advisors to understand the implications of such investment.

An investment in the Fund is speculative and involves a high degree of risk. The Fund may exhibit volatility and investors may lose all or substantially all of their investment. DL Capital typically controls trading of the Fund and the use of a single advisor's trading program may result in a lack of diversification. Furthermore, the Fund's performance is largely dependent on the talents and efforts of highly skilled individuals and its success depends upon DL Capital's ability to identify and retain such investment professionals. Certain strategies employed by the Fund may create special risks or substantially increase the impact of adverse price movements. The Fund may charge higher fees than many other types of investments, which can offset trading profits, if any. Interest in the Fund may be subject to limitations on transferability. An investment in the Fund entails limitations on liquidity and no secondary market for interests typically exists or is likely to develop. The incentive fee may create an incentive for DL Capital to make investments that are riskier than it would otherwise make.

Certain information contained in this website constitutes "Forward-Looking Statements" (including observations about markets and industry and regulatory trends as of the original date of any writing), which can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "may", "will", "should", "expect", "anticipate", "target", "project", "estimate", "intend", "continue", or "believe", or the negatives thereof or other variations thereon or comparable terminology. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such statements. DL Capital has no obligation to update any of the forward-looking statements in this document.

The Fund is not required to be registered under the U.S. Investment Company Act of 1940 and is, therefore, not subject to the same regulatory oversight as a mutual fund.
